The Sixty-Fifth Session (since the consolidation with the Fire Baptized Church in 1911) and the First Spiritual Retreat of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church met in Falcon, North Carolina on June 21, 1975 with General Executive Board Member Reverend David A. McKenzie presiding. The conference opened at 9:00 A. M. with the singing of "O How I Love Jesus" led by Reverend Wiley T. Clark and accompanied by Mrs. Annie Laura Randall at the organ and Mrs. Phyllis Harrell at the piano. Reverend Clayton Guthrie led in prayer. The official welcome was extended by Conference Superintendent Reverend J. Doner Lee who brought the Key-Note Address reading from Acts 1:4-6; 2:4 in the Bible. His challenging message was followed by a season of prayer for all around the camp meeting auditorium altar.

The conference was called to order by Conference Superintendent J. Doner Lee who presented the Presiding Officer Reverend David A. McKenzie. The proposed agenda was read by the superintendent and adopted by the conference. A motion was made and adopted that the Bar of the conference be set across the auditorium and extending to the back aisle. By motion all visiting ministers were given a seat and voice in the conference. Reverends Terry Tripp, Mendel Moore, King White, Joe Harrison, and R. L. Rex were seated.

Official registration for ministers and delegates was by registration cards from which the conference enrollment was taken. The Secretary called the roll of ordained and licensed ministers. By motion the Register was adopted.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Chairman and Conference Members:

I greet you in the wonderful name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

It gives me great joy to report that today I am saved, sanctified, filled with the Holy Ghost, enjoying good health, able to preach the Gospel and looking for the soon coming of Jesus.

May I take this time to express appreciation to each minister, pastor, and church membership for the way you have cooperated with your Conference and General Programs. This year again, will be one of our best years. We have shown increase in all departments. God has given us revivals throughout the Conference. As a result many souls have been saved and added to the church. As always, when a revival spirit is in a church there is no worry about finance. This year will mark again an increase in churches paying full tithe to the General Church and Conference Budget. This is the result of a constant reminder and proper pastoral leadership. Some of the smaller churches have ventured by faith, and God has blessed them. Today these small isolated churches are paying across the board. Several recently have gone full time, paying their pastor a good salary. God is blessing them and they in turn are reaching out to bless others.

This has been a busy year for me. I have traveled through the conference for various reasons, such as homecomings, revivals, dedications, funerals, weddings, church meetings, Conferences, etc. I managed the Falcon and Piney Grove Camp Meetings, presided over District Fellowship Conferences, Conference Board Meetings, and all department board meetings. I have served as Business Manager and Editor of the EVANGEL, Chairman of the Ministerial Church and Extension Loan Fund, Superannuate and Insurance Program. My office hours have been filled with today's complex problems, along with its joys. I have endeavored to represent each minister, and church to the best of my ability. Every decision has not pleased everyone. But they were made conscientiously and in the fear of God.

As a member of the General Executive Board, I have served as Chairman of the General Loan Department, attended Executive Board Meetings, Sunday School Convention, Dedication of General Headquarters, and General Board of Administration meetings. In each and on each subject, I have tried to represent this Conference, the Eastern area and my entire Denomination, with a prayerful conviction of what I felt was right. I have been honored to serve this great church in this capacity, and have enjoyed my labors with Bishop Williams and other members of the Executive Board.

As we approach and enter into the bicentennial year of our great nation, I feel a deep sense of appreciation for America; yet, I feel we are in the greatest need of our people turning back to God than any period in our history. "I call upon this Conference and Church to let us humble ourselves and pray and seek His face and turn from our wicked ways: and believe God to forgive our sins and heal our nation."

My personal desire is: to serve the Lord in the beauty of Holiness, to fill the place He has given me to serve as a faithful servant, and to be found at the post of duty when He comes or calls.

—J. Doner Lee

THE STATE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

The State of the North Carolina Conference at the close of 1975 is excellent. God has been gracious to us this year.

In this report you will see that each department and church has shown a noted increase. This is only made possible through the Divine leadership of the Lord, and obedient followers. Our Conference has again set a record in experiences around our altars, of increase in membership, and in giving to the General Program. We have again lived up to our name (the largest with 13,212 members) and according to the General Treasurer's report for the year, we gave more than any Conference in the denomination. To God be the praise. The following will give progress of each department.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Christian Education Department has had a very good year. Our overall increase will reflect the same. The Christian Education Board has worked faithfully and untiringly with Rev. Wiley T. Clark for the first nine months and the Rev. Bobby Collins, Christian Education Director.

In August of this year (1975) Rev. Wiley T. Clark was elected to serve as our General Sunday School President. This of course left a vacancy on the board. The Conference board appointed Rev. Bobby L. Collins, pastor at Nakina, to assume the duties of Director. Rev. Hildred C. Potter was appointed to fill the vacancy on the board. I can truthfully say, I have never seen a transaction work any more smoothly than this one. God has blessed. The ministers and this Conference have received Brother Collins with a heart of love and the work continues to grow. Thank God for His blessings upon our Sunday Schools and Lifeliners. We are expecting the new year 1976 to be the greatest year in our history. Let us join hands with Brother

Collins and work while it is day, for the night shadows are swiftly closing in.

Evangelism Department

The Evangelism Department has again had a very rewarding and fruitful year. Rev. L. B. Collins and the Evangelism Board, along with the District units have worked faithfully to have one of the greatest reports yet. We have had as many as thirteen churches under the program and all have done excellent. "Evangelism is the answer." And the North Carolina Conference Program continues to work. Small churches placed under this program continue to work. Small churches placed under this program soon become identified as a growing church. Ministers under the program are dedicated men and deserve a lot of credit for their pioneer spirit and devotion to the program. Rev. L. B. Collins continues to offer good leadership in this department. There has been an increase in the Evangelism Department alone of 132 church members, 125 Sunday School members, 98 in Lifeliners, and 47 in Woman's Auxiliary. To God we give the praise for what He is doing for the Evangelism Churches.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

There is no way for me to report all the good done by the Woman's Auxiliary; for, they are continually adding new things, setting new goals, and accomplishing whatever they choose to do. Mrs. Hollon Davenport, the Auxiliary Board and local Woman's Auxiliary, set a goal this year for the Feast of Ingathering. With ladies working (like Mrs. J. W. Berry) together, they reached their goal. This year they gave more to Emmanuel and Holmes than any other Conference Auxiliary. This was thrilling. The way they did it was, each church turned in their monies at the September District Fellowship Conference. This year was good, but I believe 1976 will be the best year yet. The Woman's Auxiliary not only raises money, they are always praying, witnessing, visiting, helping others and winning souls. Thank you, Mrs. Davenport and Woman's Auxiliaries for a job well done.

Other Areas of Progress

To complete this report I must recognize the good job done by our pastors and church body. You have together made this another good year. The Harvest Train exceeded last year with $52,059.34 cash and $19,520.85 commodities, a total of $71,580.19. Our World Missions Program under Rev. Raymond Potter's leadership has had another good year. Every phase of our Conference has shown a marked increase. Accomplishments, goals met, increases, souls saved, church buildings, parsonages, fellowship buildings built. These things just don't happen within themselves. "It takes work," and dedicated workers who love God and the church. This is the case in the North Carolina Conference. May I say "thank you" for all that you have done to help win souls this year.

Gratitude to God

We know that it takes human instrumentality to accomplish a goal. Man must have a mind to work. But our efforts would be in vain without God. He gives the increase. To Him we give the praise.

REPORT OF AUTHORIZED BUDGET COMMITTEE

The Budget Committee met in Falcon on June 3, 1975 as a follow-up of the meeting held on May 20, 1975 at which the Superintendent and Treasurer were requested to draw up a tentative budget for 1975 and 1976.

After examination of the tentative budget and much discussion the following was adopted:

1. That the 1975 budget be adopted and that a ceiling of $410,000.00 be set for the 1976 expenditures guided by income and expenditures for 1975.

2. That after careful study we recommend the 10% of regular income assessment to the churches be continued for Conference support.

3. That this committee be continued to serve and draw up a budget for 1977 and 1978 in the Spring of 1976 (March 15 to April 1) and recalculate level of Conference support. This report to be presented to the 1976 Conference.

APPRECIATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Apostle Paul wrote to Timothy, "Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and doctrine." (1 Timothy 5:17). It is, therefore, appropriate that we pause today and honor those who have labored in the ministry, and who have now come to the time of retirement from active service.

They have borne the burden of the work of God. They have proclaimed the message of Pentecostal Holiness. They have labored in the heat of the day. Now, as they slow their pace and assume a less active role in the extension of God's kingdom, we say, "your dedicated and faithful service is deeply appreciated."

REVEREND MRS. MARGARET SMITH BELL

Mrs. Margaret Smith Bell joined the North Carolina Conference in 1945. For a number of years she served as an evangelist effectively preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ and winning others to a saving knowledge of our Lord. In recent years she has not been active due to ill health.

REVEREND J. B. STONE

Rev. J. B. Stone was saved in his early twenties. He spent the early part of his ministry in the Fire Baptized Church, but in 1952 he joined the North Carolina Conference. His 23 years of faithful service included pastorates at Clarkton, Oak Ridge, Boardman, Chadbourn, Red Springs, Jacksonville, and Alliance. He retires after serving a second term at Boardman.

Two of his daughters are married to Pentecostal preachers, and one of his sons directs the music in a Pentecostal Holiness Church.

REVEREND T. MACON SPENCER

Rev. T. Macon Spencer was saved in 1945 in Portsmouth, Virginia. After his conversion he returned to his home in Swanquarter and began preaching the gospel that had delivered him from sin. He started preaching as a mission worker. It was during this time that he established the church at Swanquarter which he pastored two different terms. Other churches pastored during his 24 years of service were: Pinetown, Wades Point, Farmville, Bethany, Belfast, Goshen, and Graham's Chapel.

Brother Spencer held a number of successful revivals while he was pastoring, and he plans to continue to do some evangelistic work.

REVEREND W. TROY REESE

Rev. W. Troy Reese was saved at the age of 23. In 1933 he was called of God to preach, and in 1935 he became a member of the Upper South Carolina Conference. In over 30 years of service in that Conference he pastored a number of churches. Five churches were organized during his ministry in South Carolina.

In 1967 Brother Reese transferred to the North Carolina Conference. Since coming to this Conference, he has pastored in Darlington and Weldon. During 40 years of fruitful service in the Lord's vineyard 19 individuals have entered the ministry. Two of these are the sons of Brother Reese.

We express our appreciation to these ministers who have given most of their lives in the preaching of Pentecostal Holiness truth. Churches have been blessed by their sacrificial labor. Lives have been transformed by the Christ they exalted. Their own children have been inspired to follow in their footsteps.

May the richest blessings of our heavenly Father be with you as you enter into a well deserved rest.

MEMOIRS COMMITTEE REPORT

The Apostle John in the Spirit on the Lord's Day, heard a voice as a trumpet which said, "Come up hither," and immediately he was in the presence of the Lord. He saw the indescribable glory of the throne and of the One who sat on the throne, and he could only say, "It was like a jasper and sardine stone mingled together, circled by a emerald rainbow. Praises poured forth from those around the throne, as they repeated, 'Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.' "

These stalwart soldiers of the cross, preachers of righteousness, whose memory we honor today, have also heard a voice saying, come up hither, and they too have joined their voices in praise and adoration unto God.

REVEREND FORREST L. DANIELS

Reverend Forrest L. Daniels was born May 8, 1922 and departed this life July 4, 1974. He joined the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church in August of 1951 as a licensed minister. He served two years as local evangelist, and for twenty-one years served seven churches, namely: Butlers, Stedman, Tyndall Grove, Sharon, Whitley, Thunder Swamp and Saint Paul. The following remarks are excerpts from the words of his Conference Superintendent at his funeral.

"Forrest L. Daniels was a true minister of the gospel, a pastor called of God. He took each assignment as from God. He was not slack or slothful regarding his church; it was foremost in his daily activities. There were very few church or conference related activities that Forrest did not participate in and represent his church well. He was one who demanded respect for he was respectful. He never demanded anything, but he was always in demand. He was a prince among men. He was my brother and a man of God."

REVEREND C. R. McCARTNEY

Reverend C. R. McCartney was born in Indian Territory, later the State of Oklahoma and it was there that he began to preach the gospel. He held a secular job and labored untiringly in order to purchase a church building in McLoud, Oklahoma. In 1946 he joined the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church and was superannuated in 1960. During his ministry in the North Carolina Conference, he pastored churches at Benson, Sharon, Millennium, Oak Ridge and Raeford. While serving at Millennium he was appointed as Superintendent of the Falcon Children's Home, and served in this capacity for a number of years. During those years the foundation was laid, through hard work, careful savings and planning for the first new children's home, known now as the Williams' Home.

His labors are now ended, his task is all complete, he now joins the ranks of that ever increasing number who have heard the Master's voice, saying, come up higher.

MRS. VIOLA BENSON JARVIS

Mrs. Viola Benson Jarvis was admitted into the North Carolina Conference as a licensed minister in 1946 and was superannuated in 1970. She received her promotion to Glory on June 21, 1975. Much of her ministry was given to the work of an evangelist and she was known as an evangelist of dedication, faith, and power.

She served also as pastor of a number of churches and was held in high esteem in her work of 24 years in the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. Word of her home-going came just before the beginning of the sixty-fifth Annual Conference. She could not answer the roll here but we believe she has answered the roll call in Heaven.

We pause then to offer our words of tribute to their blessed memory and pledge ourselves anew to the task of proclaiming the gospel that they so faithfully proclaimed. With their good example before us, let us finish our labor of love. After a moment of silence, we respectfully request our Conference Superintendent, Reverend J. Doner Lee to lead us in prayer.

MINUTES OF THE CHRISTIAN EDUCATION CONVENTION

June 13, 1975

The 1975 Christian Education Convention was opened with singing and with a prayer. A devotional was given by the Reverend J. D. Lee, Conference Superintendent.

The Bar was established and the convention program was adopted.

Reverend J. D. Lee, as presiding officer, recognized the Christian Education Director, Reverend Wiley Clark. Reverend Clark introduced Reverend John Hedgepeth, who spoke for the Conference Sunday School Superintendent nominee for Top Ten Sunday School Superintendents. The nominee was Mr. Darwin Hairr of the Northwood Temple Pentecostal Holiness Church. Reverend Hedgepeth spoke at length on the qualifications of Mr. Hairr in a most impressive address. Mr. Hairr was awarded a plaque for his outstanding job as Sunday School Superintendent.

Reverend Clark next introduced the invited speaker, Reverend Kenneth Brown, pastor of the First Assembly of God Church in Arnold, Missouri. Mr. Brown spoke on methods he successfully uses to build the church.

Chairman Lee opened the floor for the nominations of delegates to the 1976 General Lifeliners Convention. There were twenty-six (26) lay delegates and thirty-three (33) clerical delegates nominated. These names were placed on ballots and prepared for voting.

Mr. Clark again presented the speaker, Reverend Brown, for another open session. Reverend Brown in this address issued a challenge for us to obey God.

The Chairman again took the floor and the prepared ballots were passed out to be marked. It was determined that there would be fourteen (14) clerical delegates and fifteen (15) lay delegates elected. The ballots were marked and sent out to be counted.

Mr. Lee called for the report of the Christian Education Director, Reverend Wiley Clark. Mr. Clark gave an abbreviated and concise report and was given a rising vote of appreciation. The character and unspoken reports of the Christian Education Board Members were passed and they were given a rising vote of appreciation.

National Standard of Achievement Awards were presented to the churches having earned them by Reverend Clark. The "Honor Sunday School" program was explained and awards presented to the churches having earned them.

Lifeliners awards were presented to the churches who qualify for them under the Chart of Progress.

A motion was made that the Chairman, Reverend J. D. Lee, be given a vote of appreciation. It was done.

A motion was made to adjourn and dismissal prayer was offered by Reverend King E. White.

With a deep sense of sympathy, we submit the following: The Lord in His wisdom has seen fit to call some of our dear friends from the ranks of the North Carolina Woman's Auxiliary the past year: Mrs. Pearl Faulk, Sanford First; Mrs. Joe Johnson, Mount Olive; Mrs. Zilphia Darden, Thunder Swamp; Mrs. Bertha Deans, Mrs. Addie Phillips, Selma; Mrs. Nellie Cheshire, Mrs. Pattie Mizelle, Chadbourn; Mrs. Vida Roberson, Williamston; Mrs. Annie Miller Johnson, Culbreth Memorial; Mrs. Megenter Wiley, Kinston; Mrs. Rossie Price, Wallace; Mrs. Eva J. Cooper, Culbreth Memorial.

Beautiful Memories, we hold so dear,
Beautiful lives they lived while here.
Our minds journey back, and 'tho sad, we just smile;
They were His from the start, we just borrowed them for a while.
Remember the dignity with which they worked,
Remember their perseverance, duties were never shirked,
The virtue of patience they so lovingly displayed,
Characters strong, the Potter had made.
Yes, our lives have been touched, we are richer today,
They plucked the thistles and planted roses on the way,
Their sojourn here has ended, but they've just moved,
They live now with God, whom they served and loved.

Signed: Mrs. Jettie Parker.
